

Wrap-Around Facilitation Training Closing Waiver Services

Waiver Rules

- The child and the family should know from the start of Waiver Services that the plan is for the child to eventually exit from the Waiver and Wrap-Around Services.
- Concluding Waiver Services is a decision made by the Wrap-Around Team.
- As time to exit approaches, the child and the family shall be informed and included in the process as they are in all aspects of Wrap-Around.
- Termination criteria will be established that lead to closing the Waiver.
- There is a specific procedure and specific forms for terminating the HCBS Waivers that must be followed and filed.
- The family can appeal the decision through an appeal procedure.
- In addition to the family, your supervisor, the Wrap-Around Team, the business office and others who have had a stake in the process should be notified as to the date that services for the child have or will end.
